

General Manager Riding Mountain Conference Centre/Camp Wannakumbac

A unique opportunity to live and work at one of the most beautiful locations in Manitoba awaits the successful candidate chosen to lead this renowned resource with roots that date back to 1948.

The Wasagaming Foundation is looking for the leadership needed to help steer the year-round operations of the Riding Mountain Conference Centre, which includes Camp Wannakumbac.

A key part of this position will be navigating the recovery of conference centre operations as well as the summer camping program both impacted by COVID-19. We are looking for someone with the vision, creativity and commitment to build on a proud legacy that has touched the lives of generations of Manitobans. We are also open to pitches on how the candidate would oversee the wide-range of responsibilities that involve marketing, maintenance and managing seasonal staff.

Our attractive compensation package includes a home on site that boasts a view of Clear Lake and Riding Mountain National Park.
